MINISTRY OF STATES.
NEW DELHI,
The 26th May 1948.

Apropos our talk about the payment of Rs. 2,63,300/- to the Ruler of Baster for the marriage of his sister. As I pointed out to you section 4 of the Extra Provincial Jurisdiction Act, 1947, does not empower the Provincial Governments to sanction special grants to the Rulers without the prior approval of the Central Government, and Central Provinces Government was not therefore competent to sanction this grant.

2. Government of India consider that all expenses on account of the marriages in Ruling family should be met out of the Civil List Reserve Fund which we have agreed to treat as the Private property of the Ruler. Where no such fund exists proposals for making suitable provisions together with the views of the Provincial Government should be forwarded to this Ministry.

Yours sincerely,

Sd/- M.K. Kirpalani
